HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

Division 3 will meet next Friday evening.

The season to increase the membership has arrived.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will meet next Wednesday evening.

All members will be welcome at the daylight meeting of Division 3 tomorrow afternoon.

County Vice President Matt O'Brien and his bride have returned from their bridal tour.

Why not follow the example of Division 4 and have an initiation before the end of the year?

The initiation of candidates at Denver, whose number will reach 100, will take place tomorrow.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Minneapolis will continue its literary club for the study of Irish history.

Barney Coll, of Jeffersonville, says a movement will be started to increase the membership in that city.

The annual ball of the New York County Board, held in the Central Opera House, was the big event of the season.

The Hibernian Rifles of Columbus, Ohio, will hold their annual military ball at the Indiana-Winter Pavilion.

The Hibernians of Minneapolis and Hennepin county are doing earnest work for the betterment of the organization.

The Norfolk county convention of the Ladies' Auxiliary, held in Hibernian Hall at Boston, had 163 delegates present.

Many members were sorry to see County Financial Secretary Tim Langan retire from office, as he made a splendid and efficient officer.

The county convention held at Minneapolis last week elected Frank J. Feeney, a successful young business man, County President for the next two years.

Neither the Ladies' Auxiliary or the division of New Albany are making much noise, but they are doing earnest work and increasing their membership.

Ladies' Auxiliary 9 of Indianapolis gave a masquerade party last week in honor of Mrs. James O'Donnell, the new County President, and Mrs. George Kirkhoff and Miss Florence Birch.

The Ladies' Auxiliary County Board at Minneapolis held an enthusiastic convention, electing Miss Anna Kelly Bryant County President. For her unselfish and zealous work she received the honor.

In discussing the present national campaign prominent members of the order express themselves as indignant over the actions of the professional agitators in the East, who profess to deliver the Irish and Irish-American vote.

TRINITY'S BOWLING LEAGUE.

The bowling game has made a ten strike with the members of Trinity Council, nearly all spending their spare time on the club house alleys, some having been accused of trying to frame up for shorter business sessions to split the extra time with the bowling game. The following is the present standing in the league with average pinning:

	W.	L.	Pge.
Cubs	13	5	.709
Yankees	12	6	.698
Tigers	12	6	.695
Athletics	11	7	.696
Giants	8	10	.670
Braves	7	11	.670
Indians	5	13	.661
Pirates	4	14	.669

TRINITY COUNCIL.

Trinity Council, Y. M. I., held an enthusiastic meeting Monday night, when many applications were presented. The membership campaign has been spirited and for the prizes offered a warm contest is being waged. This contest closes at the meeting next Monday night and the announcement of the standing of the teams will be awaited with eager interest. Prof. Leo Schmitt is arranging for a musicale for the evening of November 6, when an excellent programme will be presented. The committee that has charge of the euchre and lotto party for the afternoon and evening of November 8 has met great encouragement, and now feel confident this party will surpass anything of the kind heretofore undertaken by the council. Monday night was largely given over to story telling and it proved a time of fun for a present. President Sandmann is slated over the progress Trinity Council has made this year.

NAVAL CRUISE LECTURE.

Attorney W. Overton Harris will lecture to the members of the Holy Name Society of St. Louis Bertrand's church next Tuesday evening in Bertrand Hall, his subject to be a discussion of his experience in the recent cruise of the civilians on United States warships. Those who made the trip were selected from different sections of the country, and Mr. Harris was one of that fortunate number. In these days of much talk concerning preparedness a little insight into the affairs of our navy is sure to prove interesting and a good attendance is expected next Tuesday evening. Rev. Father R. G. Lyons, chaplain of the Holy Name Society, will preside.

SAFETY FIRST.

St. Joseph's Young Men's Club will give two minstrel performances tomorrow and Monday evening in their club house on Washington street. They are being coached by John F. Nuzol and Andy Ferg, the well known black face comedian, has been secured for a specialty. Andy's numerous friends and followers will be there the opening night, as they are not taking any chances on him not appearing the second night.

ST. PETER'S.

Sunday morning the members of St. Rose Sodality of St. Peter's church celebrated their anniversary. There was solemn high mass, at which Rev. Edmund Klein, O. M. C., the pastor, preached a feeling and instructive sermon. It was a highly edifying sight when the members, all girls of the parish under sixteen years old, proceeded to the altar and received holy communion in a body.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest
Members Here and Elsewhere.

Indianapolis Council has fifteen candidates awaiting the first degree. There will be a joint initiation at Seymour, Ind., about the middle of November.

The Knights of Salina, Kas., added an even fifty to their number on Discovery day.

The Frankfort council will stage a big minstrel show the second week of next month.

The Knights of Denver took the orphan children to the Broadway Theater to see the Mission Play.

The General New York fourth degree exemplification last Sunday at Auburn was a great success.

Omaha Knights are making great efforts to increase their membership and have an initiation next month.

Dr. James J. Walsh, recipient of this year's Laetare medal, addressed the Knights of Milwaukee and their friends Monday night.

Two hundred Knights and their ladies enjoyed a delightful banquet in observance of Columbus day at Salina, Kas. Mayor Chittenden was the principal speaker.

All Vicksburg is talking of the splendid results achieved by the Knights of that city, who raised $1,200 recently for emergency expenses for St. Paul's church.

REQUEST FOR ORPHANS.

The three Catholic orphanages in Jefferson county will share equally in a balance of about $12,000 from the estate of Mary R. Chapman, whose will, dated October 19, 1915, was admitted to probate in the County Court on Wednesday. The real estate is valued at about $13,500, out of which the following bequests are to be paid first:

One hundred dollars to be expended by the executor for masses for the souls of the testatrix, her father, mother and brother; $25 to Lizzie Reardon, a sister; $5 to M. S. Reardon, a brother; $5 to Nellie Fudge, a sister; $50 to Mayme Fudge Fogarty, a niece; $25 to Mr. Fogarty, a friend; $100 to the Little Sisters of the Poor, Tenth and Magazine streets; $100 to Frank Holtheide, a friend, and $100 to Catherine Fogarty, a niece. The Louisville Trust Company is appointed executor.

HOLY ROSARY ART CLASS.

The art class of Holy Rosary Academy is attracting attention in Central Park, where the members are sketching, with a view to having finished work when outside work is no longer possible.

FRANKFORT.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Salender, of Frankfort, will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage today. They have issued invitations for a reception the night of this evening at their beautiful home on the South Side.

FREE LECTURE.

Attorney William P. McDonough will speak on the Kentucky workmen's compensation act next Monday evening, October 30, under the auspices of the Columbia Athletic Club, at their club house, 621 East St. Catherine street, and the public is invited to attend.

RETURN THANKS.

The Sisters of Holy Rosary Academy gratefully acknowledge the kind assistance and patronage extended them at their recent euchre. Miss Ida Couchman, of 1900 Fourth avenue, was awarded the blue bird table cover and Miss Anastasia Walsh, of 519 West Oak street, was awarded the embroidered gown.

COMING NEARER.

Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal church have taken another step nearer the one true faith. At the meeting of Bishops, clergymen and laymen in St. Louis on Wednesday provision was made for the first time in the history of that church for voluntary confession followed by absolution. The lower house approved a recommendation to insert in the service for the visitation of the sick, a rubric directing that the "sick person shall be moved to make a special confession of his sins, if he feels his conscience troubled with any matter; after which confession the minister shall assure him of God's mercy and forgiveness."

NOTRE DAME NOTES.

David Starr Jordan, Chancellor of Leland Stanford University, author and lecturer, spoke at Notre Dame last week on the question, "Is War Eternal?" He was followed by Edgar A. Guest, humorist, philosopher and poet of the Detroit Free Press.

On Saturday Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo visited Notre Dame, accompanied by Senators Kern and Taggart. A committee from the Notre Dame Indiana Club, led by Harry E. Scott, of Indianapolis, welcomed the Congressmen.

On Wednesday J. P. McEvoy, Chicago humorist and an old student of Notre Dame, lectured to the students of the school of journalism on the art of conducting a humor column.

"The Spirit of Unrest" is the title of the address delivered by Rev. John Cavanaugh, President of Notre Dame, at the State University on October 25. Dr. Cavanaugh will also be present at the Indiana centennial celebration at Purdue University on October 31, and will speak on "What Constitutes a State."

MONSIGNOR CHIDWICK.

Monsignor John P. Chidwick, President of St. Joseph's Seminary and College and President of the Catholic Summer School, who was chaplain on the ill-fated Maine, was fifty-three years old Monday. From all parts of the country he received messages conveying congratulations.
